The number of flights during the first ten months of the year at Athens International Airport were severely impacted by flight cancellations during the period March to October, due to the COVID-19 pandemic crisis. In specific, the number of flights amounted to 100,675, i.e. 48.8% below the respective 2019 levels. Analytically, domestic flights were reduced by 44.1% and international operations by 52.3%.

---

October 2020 traffic statistics are provisional and subject to change; traffic data for the previous month are finalised following the 20th of each month.

Source: AIA/Management Information System